Dear Sir/Madam,

RE: INVITATION TO A SEMINAR ON LEADERSHIP FOR TRANSFORMING PUBLIC INSTITUTIONS IN AFRICA AT KENYA SCHOOL OF GOVERNMENT, MOMBASA CAMPUS, 6TH - 8TH SEPTEMBER 2022.

Greetings from the African Association for Public Administration and Management (AAPAM).

AAPAM in collaboration with Kenya School of Government (KSG) is pleased to invite you to seminar on Leadership for Transforming Public Institutions in Africa set to take place from 6th - 8th September 2022 in Mombasa, Kenya.

African leaders are cognizant of the necessity and challenges of socioeconomic transformation. This acknowledgment is exhibited in their implementation of the agenda 2063 which identifies seven aspirations and 20 goals. On the same note, African member states also devoted the continent to executing the 17 goals and their targets set out in of the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs). Both agendas put emphasis on the need for hastening Africa's dynamic transformation to transform Public Institutions in Africa and eventually attain sustainable development.

Building transformative leadership capacity is a colossal task requiring resources, commitment, and support. Though many countries have experienced relatively strong growth in recent years, African leaders must confront increasingly urgent, and challenging, issues over the next decade to have transformed public Institutions.

Against this background, AAPAM invites you to this highly important seminar. The seminar is designed for permanent secretaries, senior and top public and private sector managers, administrators, directors, heads of department and divisions, policy makers, development partners, young professionals, commissioners, development partners, academicians, and researchers. This seminar will adopt a physical format observing all World Health Organization safety measures.

Your personal presence and participation will be extremely valued. Further, we humbly request you to publicize this information to your colleagues and encourage them to register for the seminar.

The registration fee for the seminar is United States Dollars 700 hundred (USD 700) for Kenyan delegates and United States Dollars eight hundred (USD 800) for international delegates respectively.
